

Montvale Library presents
SUMMER THURSDAYS AT SEVEN
All programs begin at 7:00PM

July 8 - Astronomy for Everyone, The Size and Scale of the Universe with Astrophysicist Kevin Manning.

Council Chambers first, and then outside for viewing the night sky with Mr. Manning's telescope.

This program is an adult program and families are encouraged to attend. Age 9 and up

Registration is required by phone 201-391-5090, email: montvalelibraryprograms@gmail.com or stop by the front desk.

July 15- "As You Like It" performed by the Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey's Next Stage Ensemble.

Council Chambers. This is an adult program and families are encouraged to attend. Age appropriate 9 and up.

The play is a condensed version - one hour- with clever sets, costumes, and talented actors and actresses.

Another fantastic production by Next Stage Ensemble, don't miss it this year.

Registration is required by phone 201-391-5090, email: montvalelibraryprograms@gmail.com, or stop by the front desk

July 29 - Almost Original Synthetic Swampgrass Jug-band...the 40th anniversary tour. The band started at a Pascack Hills

Talent show, went on to play with Vassar Clements, Jay Unger, Dell McCoury and throughout the Metro Area.

They can be seen and heard at Albert Hall in Waretown (New Jersey's Opreyland) .

Visit their website: www.jug-band.com for the then and now photos of the band or see the never released

Burger King Blues video filmed at the Park Ridge BK in 1972 at www.Youtube.com

This concert is outside on the Great Lawn. Bring your own lawn chair, friends, family and neighbors and bug spray.

If there is inclement weather the concert will be held in the Council Chambers.

Registration is not required for the concert.