The issuance of a Certificate of Continued Occupancy are conducted solely for the benefit of the municipality, and not for the purchaser or seller of real property. The Certificate of Continued Occupancy is not intended as a representation of the condition of the property, or that the property is safe or meets any or all of the conditions of the CCO. The issuance of a CCO is not intended, and should NOT be relied upon, as evidence that the property is safe, structurally sound, and in compliance with zoning codes, fire codes, building codes, or that any of the systems serving the property are operating properly, including well, septic, electrical, plumbing, etc.
