The Mayor's Corner

As we are nearing winter, we are preparing for the upcoming snow season. Our salt inventory, the snow equipment and contractors are all in check and in ready mode for the snow and ice. The road paving program will come to an end in November and we will start to prepare for the 2023 road paving program during the budget season. The 2023 budget planning has already started for us and we are challenged, like everyone else, with inflation and the cost of services and goods that we need to make the town run to meet your expectations.

his/her decision based on a recommendation from a third party. I have been involved in this process for the last 12 years as a Councilman and as a Mayor, I have never seen such a chaotic process that is statewide, and regardless of who is in the office at the state level, both Republican and Democrat Officials, the process sets towns like us for failure by overbuilding and impacting the infrastructure negatively. By the year 2025, we will have 365 affordable residential units in Montvale, that's almost 10% of all of our housing units being affordable units, more than any other town has built in our region.

Mayor Mike Ghassali

I wish you and your families a happy and healthy Thanksgiving. Please don't hesitate to contact me if I can be of any assistance.

Mayor Mike Ghassali

The council members and myself have been working diligently to ensure we have control of building rights to large parcels in town. We have been acquiring properties and will continue to acquire more properties and make them assets for the town as, we see it in the best interest for our town. We are also preparing for the 2025 expected affordable housing additional obligation by the courts. We joined 15 other towns to ask the governor to reinstate COAH to oversee the process rather than a judge making

Montvale Police Department

We had a great time at the October 4th Coffee with A Cop, hosted by the Montvale Starbucks. Thank you to all who stopped by to chat, and a huge thank you to the management and staff at Starbucks for hosting us. Our Junior Police Academy participants will be graduating on November 22nd after 8 weeks of training. The curriculum included physical training, a presentation by the Bergen County Bomb Squad, and a trip to MetLife Stadium. Congratulations graduates!

After 36 years as a Montvale Police Officer, including the last four years as Chief of Police, this will be my final newsletter. I will be retiring, effective December 31, 2022. It has been an honor and a privilege to serve the Borough. Have a great Thanksgiving and Holiday Season.
